1.0 Introduction

Oceanscan recognises and accepts its responsibility as set out in the Data Protection Act 1998 and sub-legislation contained therein. The company will take all reasonable steps to meet this responsibility and to promote good practice in the handling and use of personal information.

This policy statement applies to all individuals about whom the company processes personal information, as well as other partners and companies with which the company undertakes its business.

This policy is compliant with the Maritime Labour Convention 2006.

2.0 Scope

The company needs to collect and use certain types of personal information about people with whom it deals in order to operate. These include current, past and prospective employees, members, suppliers, clients, and others with whom it communicates. In addition, it may be required by law to collect and use certain types of information to comply with the requirements of government departments. This personal information must be dealt with properly however it is collected, recorded and used – whether on paper, in a computer, or recorded on other material – and there are safeguards to ensure this in the Data Protection Act 1998.

We regard the lawful and correct treatment of personal information by the company as very important in order to secure the successful carrying out of operations and delivery of our services, and to maintain confidence with those whom we deal. The company wishes to ensure that it treats personal information lawfully, correctly and in compliance with the 1998 act.

3.0 Data Protection Principles

Specifically, the principles require that personal information:

1. shall be processed fairly and lawfully and, in particular, shall not be processed unless specific conditions as set out in the 1998 Act are met;
2. shall be obtained only for one or more specified and lawful purposes, and shall not be further processed in any manner incompatible with that purpose or those purposes;
3. shall be adequate, relevant and not excessive in relation to the purpose or purposes for which they are processed;
4. shall be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date;
5. shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that purpose or those purposes;
6. shall be processed in accordance with the rights of the data subject under the 1998 Act; and that:
7. appropriate technical and organisational measures shall be taken against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data;
8. shall not be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Union unless that country or territory ensures an adequate level of protection for the rights and freedoms of data subjects in relation to the processing of personal data.

Commitment

The company will, through appropriate management and application of criteria and controls;

- observe fully conditions regarding the fair collection and use of information;
- meet its legal obligations to specify the purposes for which information is used;
- collect and process appropriate information, and only to the extent that it is needed to fulfil operational needs or to comply with any legal requirements;
- ensure the quality of information used, including its accuracy and relevancy for the purpose(s) specified;
- apply strict checks to determine the length of time information is held;
- ensure that the rights of people about whom information is held can be fully exercised under the 1998 Act. (These include: the right to be informed that processing is being undertaken; the right of access to one's personal information; the right to prevent processing in certain circumstances; the right to correct, block or erase information which is regarded as erroneous);
- take appropriate technical and organisational security measures to safeguard personal information; and
- ensure that personal information is not transferred abroad without suitable safeguards.
- ensure that personal or sensitive information is never used to discriminate against or to create blacklists for any person or organisation seeking to work with Oceanscan Ltd.

Compliance

In addition, the company takes steps to ensure that:

- there is someone with specific responsibility for data protection in the organisation;
- everyone managing and handling personal information understands that they are contractually responsible for following good data protection practice;
- everyone managing and handling personal information is appropriately trained to do so;
- everyone managing and handling personal information is appropriately supervised;
- anybody wanting to make enquiries about handling personal information knows what to do;
- queries about handling personal information are promptly and courteously dealt with;
- methods of handling personal information are clearly described;
- a regular review and audit is made of the way personal information is managed;
- methods of handling personal information are regularly assessed and evaluated;
- performance of handling personal information is regularly assessed and evaluated; and
- it disseminates to employees, information on good practice in respect of handling, using and storing personal information.
